BREWERY

RICHARD TARRANT

"A friendly and welcoming meeting place for all-comers." This is the aim of both Richard and his brother in law Robert Cole who decided to create an English pub here. Sad to see this building at the entry to the village falling into decay, they decided it was the ideal spot for their business. 3 years ago, together with the brewer, Jonathan Gaterby, they planted an orchard of old style "real ale" hops in order to produce a traditional English beer.
